

Message flagged

Friday, August 5, 2011 5:26 AM

Message body

We are very impressed with the level of your experience, we would like you to know that your service is needed urgently as a Crew Member. We need you to be responsible, able to maintain a consistent schedule with my crew and have a loving attitude and patience, along with high energy. You should be a self-starter with a sense of humor and maturity. You need to be tolerant and understanding. Above all, you need to have a true interest in the job that you are employed to do full time. The contract is for 2 years and the tour of duty from United Kingdom to Europe, Asia, USA.

Your monthly salary is 10,000 US Dollars and if you are able to perform your task very well, we can talk on promoting you. So we shall like to know this terms before proceeding to the next step.

1. Could you live in a single bedroom that you must share with one other person?
2. Do you consider yourself adaptable? (offer examples)
3. Could you work away for 6 months at a time?
4. Do you get sea sick?
5. Could you live and work in an enclosed environment that can often be difficult?
6. How do you cope with rules and regulations?
7. Could you cope with always being "on duty" whenever you're in public areas of the yacht?
8. Can you live and work within a close-knit team of many different nationalities?.
9. Are you willing to pay half of the expenses needed for your traveling documents to UK while the Management will pay the remaining to show your commitment?

Also, we will like you to know that the size of the yacht is a 76 meter 184 ft and also all crews go on vacation at the end of every 3 months and the working hours is 8 hours per day and 5 days a week, and you are to work alongside other crews you are to join us soon. Accommodation will be provided when you are on board. Free medical/dental care for all our crew. Maximum security on board. So we will like to know if you have a valid Work Permit and Flight Ticket. If yes get back to us so we can talk of your coming over. But if you don't have a valid UK C1-D Visa, Work Permit and Flight Ticket.

We will recommend you go through the Boulder Travel Agency that will help you with the processing of your traveling documents. This is the email address (boulder_group@live.com

Inform them that you have been offered a job by the Capt Maxwell Yacht company. We hope to get updates from you soon after you must have contacted the Boulder travel Agency regarding your traveling documents.

Please Note: All crews are to pay Half of the total expenses needed for their traveling documents to show that you are really committed to work on our Yacht. The Management will pay the remaining half of your traveling expenses. Your Half payment of your traveling documents is refundable once you get On-Board.

Best Regards.
Captain Maxwell.

